CHAPTER 75.

AN ACT to amend section 4733 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, so that it shall provide that the time during which any escaped prisoner shall be unlawfully absent from the prison shall not be computed as a part of the term for which he was sentenced.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Sentence, when to commence; conviction for more than one offense. SECTION 1. Section 4733 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following: "and provided further that when any convict confined in said prison shall escape therefrom, the time during which he unlawfully remains absent from the prison after such escape, shall not be computed as any part of the term for which such prisoner was sentenced to be confined in the prison;" said section as so amended will read as follows: Section 4733. The sentence of any convict to imprisonment in the state prison shall be for a certain term of time, to commence at twelve o'clock, noon, on the day of such sentence, but any time which may elapse after such sentence, while such convict is confined in the county jail or is at large on bail, or while his case is pending in the supreme court upon writ of error or otherwise, shall not be computed as any part of the term of such sentence; provided that when any person is convicted of more than one offense at the same time the court may impose as many sentences of imprisonment as the defendant has been convicted of offenses, each term of imprisonment to commence at the expiration of that first imposed, whether that be shortened by good conduct or not; and provided further that when any convict confined in said prison shall escape therefrom, the time during which he unlawfully remains absent from the prison after such escape shall not be computed as any part of the term for which such prisoner was sentenced to be confined in the prison.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 76.

AN ACT to amend subdivision 1 of section 3935, of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, relating to allowance to widows.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Allowance to be made whether widow waives or accepts provisions of will. SECTION 1. Subdivision 1 of section 3935 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Allowance to Widows. 1. The widow, if any, shall be allowed all her articles of apparel and ornaments, also all wearing apparel, family pictures and ornaments of the deceased, except such as may have been specifically bequeathed by the deceased, also the household furniture of the deceased, not exceeding in value two hundred fifty dollars, also all provisions and fuel on hand provided for family use, also other personal property to be selected by her, not exceeding in value two hundred dollars. This allowance shall be made whether the widow waives or accepts the provisions made for her in the will of her husband or when no provision is made for her, as well as when he dies intestate.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.
