CHAPTER 138.

AN ACT to authorize all cities in the state of Wisconsin to punish persons who engage in fighting or affrays, or in assaults, or use of abusive or obscene language.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Fights, affrays, and assaults; abusive and obscene language. SECTION 1. All cities in this state are authorized and the common council of any such city shall have power to enact an ordinance, or ordinances, for the punishment by fine or imprisonment, or both, of any and all persons who shall engage in fighting or in any affray within the limits of such city; and also any person, or persons, who shall in such city assault another when not excusable or justifiable, or who shall use in reference to and in the presence of another or in reference to and in the presence of any member of his family, abusive or obscene language, intended or naturally tending to provoke an assault or any breach of the peace; provided, that the penalty imposed by such ordinance shall not exceed the penalty imposed by the statutes of the state of Wisconsin for the same or similar offenses.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 139.

AN ACT amendatory to section 3821 of the statutes of 1898, relating to the filing of inventories in the probate wills.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Inventory and appraisalment. SECTION 1. Amend section 3821 of the statutes of 1898 by striking out after the word "knowledge" in the fifth line of said section, the words:

"except that an executor who shall be a residuary legatee and shall have given bonds to pay all debts and legacies, as provided by section 3795, shall not be required to return an inventory," and by inserting in lieu thereof, the words: "any provision in the will to the contrary notwithstanding," so that said section will read when so amended as follows:

Section 3821. Every executor or administrator shall, within three months after his appointment, make and return into the county court a true inventory of the real estate and of all the goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased which shall come to his possession or knowledge, any provision in the will to the contrary notwithstanding. The estate and effects comprised in the inventory shall be appraised by two or more disinterested persons, appointed by the county court for that pur-
