CHAPTER 257.

AN ACT amendatory of section 3964 of the statutes of 1898, relating to the custody of ward, etc.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Custody of ward. SECTION 1. Section 3964 of the statutes of 1898, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "person" in the fourth line of said section, the words "and estate," and by striking out the words "and competent and suitable" commencing in the fifth line thereof after the word "living," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "or he, or she be incompetent or unsuitable;" and by inserting after the word "person" in the seventh line, the words "and estate;" and by striking out all after the word "education," in the seventh line, including lines 8, 9 and 10, and by inserting in lieu thereof, "but the court may in its discretion appoint separate guardians of the person and estate of the minor. The guardian of the person shall have the custody of the person, and the care of his education, and the guardian of the estate shall have the care and management of his estate; and, in all cases, until such minor shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years, or until the guardian shall be discharged according to law," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Custody of ward, etc. Section 3964. The father of the minor, if living, and in case of his death the mother, while she remains unmarried, being themselves respectively competent to transact their own business and not otherwise unsuitable, shall be entitled to the custody of the person and estate of the minor, and to the care of his education. If the minor has no father or mother living, or he or she be incompetent or unsuitable, the guardian so appointed shall have the custody of the person and estate of the minor and the care of his education; but the court may in its discretion appoint separate guardians of the person and estate of the minor. The guardian of the person shall have the custody of the person, and the care of his education, and the guardian of the estate shall have the care and management of his estate; and in all cases, until such minor shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years, or until the guardian shall be discharged according to law.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 258.

AN ACT to authorize the La Belle Cemetery Association, its successors and assigns, to build, construct and maintain a wagon bridge or bridges in conjunction with the city of Oconomowoc, across the Oconomowoc river.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Bridge. SECTION 1. The La Belle Cemetery Association, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of this state, its successors and assigns, are hereby authorized to build, construct and maintain, in conjunction with the city of Oconomowoc, for the use of itself and said city, one or more wagon bridges over and across the Oconomowoc river within the limits of said city, to connect the grounds of said association with the streets of said city.

How constructed. SECTION 2. Said bridge or bridges shall be construed so as to offer reasonable and proper means for the passage of row boats and launches through the same, and so as not to materially interfere with the navigation of said river.
