

described and as therein purported to be conveyed, and the records thereof, heretofore made, is hereby declared to be and to have been legal and valid, and every such instrument and acknowledgment thereof as hereinbefore stated, together with a record of the same, shall be receivable in evidence with the same force and effect as if the same had been acknowledged by any other person duly authorized to take acknowledgments as prescribed by law; provided, that this act shall not affect any pending suit or proceeding or the right, title or interest of any purchaser in good faith and for value, without notice.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 3, 1905.

No. 396, A.]

[Published May 4, 1905.

CHAPTER 143.

AN ACT to amend chapter 377, of the laws of 1901, relating to feeding stuffs.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Term "concentrated feeding stuffs" defined. SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 377, laws of 1901 is hereby amended to read as follows: Section 1. The term "Concentrated Commercial Feeding Stuff," as used in this act, shall include linseed meals, cotton seed meals, pea meals, cocoanut meals, oil meals of all kinds, gluten meals, gluten feeds, maize feeds, starch feeds, sugar feeds, sucrose feeds, hominy feeds, cerealine feeds, distillers' grains, dried brewers' grains, malt sprouts, rice meals, oat feeds, corn and oat feeds, dried blood, tankage, ground beef or fish scraps, mixed feeds of all kinds, also condimental stock foods, patented and proprietary stock foods claimed to possess nutritive as well as medicinal properties, and all other materials intended for feeding to domestic animals; but shall not include hays and straws, the whole seeds nor the unmixed meals made directly from the entire grains of wheat, rye, barley, oats, Indian corn, buckwheat, * * * sorghum, broom corn, millet and flax seed. Neither shall it include wet brewers' grains, nor wheat, rye and buckwheat brans or middlings not mixed with other substances, but sold separately, as distinct articles of commerce, nor pure grains ground together.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 3, 1905.

No. 373, A.]

[Published May 4, 1905.

CHAPTER 144.

AN ACT to legalize the incorporation of the Greenbush Cemetery Association.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Incorporation legalized. SECTION 1. The corporation known as the Greenbush Cemetery Association of Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, is hereby declared to be in all respects regular and is hereby legalized, upon the condition that within thirty days after the passage of this act the present president and secretary thereof shall make and record in the office of the register of deeds of Sheboygan county a certificate containing the names of the associates who attended the first meeting of the incorporation of said association, the corporate name agreed upon, the number of trustees fixed, the names of those chosen at such meeting and their classification, and the day fixed upon for the annual election of trustees; such certificate shall be acknowledged by such officers, and the facts required to be stated therein may be taken from the minute book of said association. Such certificate, when recorded, shall have the same effect as if a proper certificate had been filed within three days after the first meeting at which such association was incorporated.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 3, 1905.