CHAPTER 17.

AN ACT to amend section 2345 of the statutes of 1898 so as to enable a married woman to maintain an action in her own name for the alienation and loss of the affections and society of her husband.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Married woman; action for alienating husband's affections.

SECTION 1. Section 2345 of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 2345. Every married woman may sue in her own name and shall have all the remedies of an unmarried woman in regard to her separate property or business and to recover the earnings secured to her by the two next preceding sections, and shall be liable to be sued in respect to her separate property or business, and judgment may be rendered against her and be enforced against her and her separate property in all respects as if she were unmarried. And any married woman may bring and maintain an action in her own name for any injury to her person or character the same as if she were sole. She may also bring and maintain an action in her own name, and for her own benefit, for the alienation and the loss of the affection and society of her husband. Any judgment recovered in any such action shall be the separate property and estate of such married woman.

* * * Nothing herein contained shall affect the right of the husband to maintain a separate action for any such injuries as are now provided by law.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
