CHAPTER 220.

AN ACT to create the town of Orienta in Bayfield county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Territory embraced. SECTION 1. Townships forty-nine and fifty, north, of range nine west, and the south half of town forty-nine (49) north of range eight (8) west, heretofore being within the town of Iron River, in the county of Bayfield, are hereby set off and detached from said town of Iron River and shall constitute and be known as the town of Orienta.

Apportionment of indebtedness. SECTION 2. Said town of Orienta shall be chargeable with such proportion of the indebtedness heretofore incurred by said town of Iron River, as the value of the territory constituting said town of Orienta bears to the whole of said town of Iron River, based upon the assessment roll of 1905 of said town of Iron River.

Apportionment of credits. SECTION 3. Said town of Orienta shall receive from said town of Iron River its just share of the credits of said town which shall be apportioned in like manner as the indebtedness.

First town meeting held legalized. SECTION 4. The first meeting heretofore held in said town on the first Tuesday of April, 1905, is hereby in all respects legalized.

When town deemed duly organized. SECTION 5. Upon the election and qualification of its officers said town of Orienta shall possess all the rights and privileges of towns under the general law.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 19, 1905.
