CHAPTER 320.

AN ACT making appropriations for the support of the University.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Tax for; loans. SECTION 1. Section 390 of the statutes of 1898, as amended by section 1, chapter 170, of the laws of 1899, section 1 of chapter 322 of the laws of 1901, and section 1 of chapter 344 of the laws of 1903, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 390. There shall be levied and collected annually a state tax of two-sevenths of one mill for each dollar of the assessed valuation of the taxable general property of the *state as ascertained and fixed by the state board of assessment for apportionment of the state tax to the several counties, which amount, when so levied and collected, is * * * appropriated to the university fund income to be used * * * for current and administration expenditures and for the increase and improvement of the facilities of the university; * * * provided, that upon any apportionment of funds in the treasury under section 1069a of the statutes of 1898, such fund shall be applied to the tax hereinbefore levied. The commissioners of public lands may direct the state treasurer, from time to time, to set apart such sums by way of loan to the fund known as the university fund income, for the university uses from uninvested moneys in the trust funds for the period when so uninvested, * * * as in their judgment shall be prudent, such loans to be repaid to the trust fund from the tax hereinbefore appropriated * * * with interest at the rate then required upon loans to school districts.*

Annual appropriation for construction of buildings, etc.
SECTION 2. There is hereby annually appropriated for the period of three years, the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, to the university fund income from the general fund of the state out of any moneys not otherwise appropriated to be used for the construction and equipment, in the order of the greatest need therefor, of such additional buildings and works and the enlargement and repairs of buildings and works, as in the judgment of the regents shall be absolutely required, and as shall be approved by the governor and can be completed within the appropriation herein made; and also for fire protection; for furniture and equipment of existing buildings; and for apparatus and additions to the library; provided, that no plan or plans for any building shall be finally adopted, and no contract or contracts shall be entered into by the regents for the construction of any building until such plans and contracts, with complete estimates of the total cost thereof, shall have been submitted to and in writing approved by the governor of the state, who shall withhold such approval until he shall satisfy himself by a personal examination or by such other means as he may in his discretion adopt, that such building is required for the purposes proposed, and it can and will be erected and fully completed according to such plans or contracts for the sum proposed for the same by the regents out of the appropriation herein made.

Establishment of new school or college. SECTION 3. No new school or college shall be established unless authorized by the legislature.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
