CHAPTER 429.

AN ACT to amend section 12 of chapter 218 of the laws of 1899, relating to the district court in the county of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Phonographic reporter; duties; salary. SECTION 1. Section 12 of chapter 218 of the laws of 1899 is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 12. The judge of said district court is hereby authorized to appoint a phonographic reporter for such court. The person so appointed shall be deemed an officer of the court, and before entering upon the duties of his office shall take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office and file the same, duly certified to, in the office of the county clerk of Milwaukee county. Such reporter so appointed shall attend all the sessions of said district court and shall report all preliminary examinations held before said court, but in all cases of prosecutions for violations of the ordinances of the city of Milwaukee, and in all prosecutions for misdemeanors said reporter shall not be required to report such trial or proceeding, nor shall it be necessary for said judge of said court to take minutes of the evidence given before him; but said district judge may require said reporter to report any trial or proceeding, other than preliminary examinations which may be had before said court.

* * * It shall be the duty of said reporter, at the request of any party, to transcribe in long hand the evidence of any proceeding or trial taken by him in said district court, or any part thereof, which transcript shall be duly certified by him to be correct, and for which he shall be entitled to receive from the party requesting the same, five cents per folio, when written out in full, and when, at the request of the party it shall be written in narrative form, ten cents per folio. Said reporter shall be furnished all necessary stationery and supplies. It shall be the duty of such reporter to transcribe * * * as soon as may be, the charge of the court to the jury, and the evidence taken upon preliminary examinations, * * * whether the accused be held for trial or discharged, and file the same within ten days after reporting such testimony. For reporting, transcribing and filing testimony, duly certified to as correct, said reporter shall be entitled to receive as compensation such salary and transcript fees as shall be fixed by the County Board. Provided, however, that until the compensation of such reporter is so fixed by said County Board said reporter shall continue to receive the salary now provided by law.

Conflicting laws repealed. SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved June 19, 1905.

CHAPTER 430.

AN ACT to prescribe the manner of printing the session laws of 1905.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Session laws, how printed. SECTION 1. The session laws for the year 1905 shall, whenever any chapter or section therein purports to amend any section of any prior session law or statute, have all new matter therein added to or changed from such prior session law of statute printed in italics and all omissions therefrom indicated by asterisks. The secretary of state with the assistance of the attorney general shall prepare for the printer the necessary copies of the enrolled bills with such additions, changes and omissions suitably indicated to enable the printer to comply with this act.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved June 19, 1905.
