CHAPTER 98.

AN ACT to amend section 936a, chapter 293, laws of 1903, relating to the care of endowments for public libraries.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Disposition of gifts, bequests, etc.; treasurer or financial secretary; bond; annual report. SECTION 1. Section 936a, chapter 293, laws of 1903, is hereby amended by adding to the end thereof the following: "Such treasurer or financial secretary shall make an annual report to the board of directors showing in detail the amount, investment, income and disbursements from the trust funds in his charge. Such report shall also be appended to the annual report which said library board is required to make to the common council and to the free library commission. Such treasurer or financial secretary shall also send a copy of each annual report to the state commissioner of banking," so that the section, when amended, shall read as follows: In all cases where any gift, bequest, devise or endowment shall have been or shall be made to any public library, organized under section 931 of the statutes of 1898, the library board of such library may pay or transfer such gift, bequest or endowment, or the proceeds thereof, to the treasurer of the city, village or town in which such library is situated, or may in the same manner pay or transfer such gift, bequest or endowment to any member of such board to be elected by them and thereafter to be known as financial secretary. Such financial secretary shall hold his office only during his membership of such library board, and shall be elected annually at the same time and in the same manner as the other officers of the library board. In all cases of any such treasurer or financial secretary holding any moneys or property whatever belonging to such library, such library board shall require a bond from such treasurer or financial secretary to the library board in such sum, not less than double the amount of such money or property so held by him, and with such sureties, as the said library board shall require and approve. Such bond shall be conditioned in substantially the same form as the ordinary bond required from the treasurer of such city, village or town, with the necessary verbal changes to make the same applicable to the moneys and property so held by him. Such treasurer or financial secretary shall make an annual report to the board of directors showing in detail the amount, investment, income and disbursements from the trust funds in his charge. Such report shall also be appended to the annual report which said library board is required to make to the common council and to the free library commission. Such treasurer or financial secretary shall also send a copy of each annual report to the state commissioner of banking.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 99.

AN ACT to amend sections 3 and 4 of chapter 43 of the laws of 1903, relating to false determination in the use of the Babcock test, and fixing a penalty therefor.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

To falsely manipulate or under-read or over-read unlawful.

SECTION 1. Section 3 of chapter 43 of the laws of 1903 is hereby amended by inserting the word "falsely" before the word "manipulate" where said word occurs in the third line of said section, so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 3. It shall be unlawful for the owner, manager, agent or any employee of a cheese factory, creamery, or condensed milk factory to falsely manipulate or under-read or over-read the Babcock test or any other contrivance used for determining the quality or value of milk or cream or to make any false determination by said Babcock test or otherwise.

Penalty prescribed. SECTION 2. Section 4 of chapter 43 of the laws of 1903 is hereby amended by striking out the words
