CHAPTER 10.

AN ACT to detach a certain portion from the town of Jacobs, Ashland county, and to create the town of Shanagolden, to provide for town meetings therein, and for a settlement between said towns.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Territory of town of Shanagolden. SECTION 1. All that tract of country heretofore constituting a part of the town of Jacobs, lying and being in the county of Ashland and state of Wisconsin, and known and described as follows, to-wit:

The west three tiers of sections in township forty-two north, of range two west; all of township forty-two north, of range three west; and all of township forty-two north of range four west, is hereby detached from the said town of Jacobs and constituted a separate town to be called the town of Shanagolden; and said town is hereby created and organized with all of the rights, powers, and privileges conferred upon and granted to other towns in the state of Wisconsin, and shall be subject to all the general laws enacted for town government therein.

First town meeting. SECTION 2. The first town meeting in said town hereby organized shall be held in the village of Shanagolden, in said town of Jacobs, and county aforesaid, in the school house situate in said village, the same being located in section sixteen, township forty-two north, of range two west, on the day appointed by law for the holding of annual town meetings in the year 1907; and shall, in the manner provided by law, elect town officers for said town and exercise all other powers and make such provisions for the town government as are now authorized by statute to be exercised and made at the annual town meeting of any town.

First election; inspectors and canvass. SECTION 3. For the purpose of election hereinbefore provided the qualified electors of the said town of Shanagolden assembled at the place aforesaid shall, between the hours of nine and eleven o'clock, in the forenoon of said day, choose three of their number to act as inspectors of said election, and such inspectors shall, before entering upon their respective duties, severally take the usual oath of office and file the same with their returns; and such inspectors shall respectively canvass and return the votes cast at such election in all respects, as provided by law for inspectors at annual town meetings. A town clerk and also necessary clerks of election shall be appointed by said inspectors, or a majority thereof, to assist said inspectors in conducting said town meeting and in canvassing and returning the votes cast at such election.

Vesting of town functions. SECTION 4. When said town meeting shall have been held as herein provided, and the town officers required by law duly elected, the said town of Shanagolden shall be deemed and shall be duly organized and shall possess all the rights, powers, privileges and authority, and shall be subject to the usual liabilities of other towns in the state of Wisconsin. After said first town meeting all annual meetings shall be held on the day provided by law for the holding of town meetings in other towns in the state of Wisconsin.

Notice of first town meeting. SECTION 5. Notice of said town meeting shall be given by the posting of a copy of this act in at least six public places in said town of Shanagolden at least ten days before the time of holding said first town meeting, by any duly qualified elector of said town who shall make a proper affidavit of such posting and file the same on the day of said first town meeting with the inspectors chosen to conduct said first town meeting.

Choice of school system; levy for schools. SECTION 6. The electors of said town of Shanagolden, assembled at the place above mentioned, shall have the power at said first meeting to vote to determine upon the adoption of the township system of schools, or the school district system, and shall have power to make any levy allowed by law for school purposes irrespective of the recommendation theretofore made by the school authorities of the present town of Jacobs.

Apportionment of assets and liabilities. SECTION 7. The assets and liabilities of the said towns of Jacobs and Shanagolden shall be apportioned to the said town of Shanagolden pro rata in such proportions as the valuation of all taxable property detached from the said town of Jacobs bears to the whole of the assessed valuation of said towns of Jacobs and Shanagolden, according to the assessment roll for the year A. D. 1906.

Procedure of settlement between new town and old. SECTION 8. The supervisors of the town of Jacobs and the supervisors of the town of Shanagolden shall, on the 4th day of June, 1907, meet at the office of the town clerk of the town of Jacobs for the purpose of making settlement between the said two towns according to the provisions of this act; and at such meeting, or at any subsequent or adjourned meeting held by said town boards of supervisors, any three of the supervisors shall have full power and authority to send for any persons, books, papers and records necessarily involved in the settlement between said two towns. The town clerk of the town of Jacobs shall be and act as the clerk of such joint meeting, and the town clerk of the new town of Shanagolden shall be present and assist; and sufficient duplicates or copies of all proceedings had shall be made in order that each town may have at least one for the use and information of the town clerk and town board of supervisors thereof. Each town shall be chargeable with one-half of all expense legally and necessarily incurred in such settlement aside from the services and per diem of the officers making such settlement, and for the services and per diem of its own officers only, and the bills therefor shall be audited and paid by the respective towns of Jacobs and Shanagolden as other bills are by law authorized to be allowed and paid.

SECTION 9. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 14, 1907.
