(Ch. 434, 1907.)

Fine for violation. SECTION 1494—39. Violation of any of the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars.

(Ch. 434, 1907.)

Quarantine when owner requests. SECTION 1494—71. The importation of cattle into the state for breeding or dairy purposes is hereby prohibited, excepting when such cattle are accompanied by a certificate of inspection made by a duly qualified veterinary surgeon, who is a graduate of a recognized veterinary college in the United States, Canada or Europe. Such certificate shall show, that at the time of said inspection and within six months prior to shipment, said cattle had been subjected to tuberculin test and were free from tuberculosis or any other contagious disease of a malignant character, or in lieu of such an inspection certificate as above required, cattle * * * shall, upon the request of the owner, be shipped in quarantine to their first destination within the state, there to remain in quarantine under the direction of the local health officer until properly examined, at the expense of the owner, by an inspector duly appointed by the state live stock sanitary board.

(Ch. 319, 1907.)

Forest tree plantations exempted from taxation. SECTION 1494—101. In consideration of the public benefit to be derived from the planting and cultivation of timber or forest trees, the owner of any tract of land in this state who shall set apart any specific portion thereof, not exceeding forty acres, for forest culture and plant the same with timber or forest trees, not less than 1,200 to the acre, shall be exempted from taxation for the period of thirty years from the time of such planting to timber or forest trees. Such exemption shall only be allowed on condition that said planted trees are kept alive and in a healthy condition. A statement or return of such plantings shall be made to the assessors when making the annual assessment, which returns shall be verified by the assessors and made the basis of such tax exemption. After said trees have been planted ten years, the owner may, without
