

3. And it shall be unlawful for any other person to make use of such label, trade-mark, trade-name, term, design, pattern, model, device, shop-mark, drawing, specification, designation, or form of advertisement so filed, or any such likeness or imitation thereof, or utter or display the same orally, or in any printed or written form in the conduct of his business or any business transaction without the express consent, license, and authority of the person, firm, co-partnership, corporation, association, or union so owning the same, and such unauthorized and unlawful use may be prohibited and prevented by injunction or other proper proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction without resource to the penal statute providing a punishment for such unlawful use. In case such association or union of workmen is not incorporated such actions may be commenced and prosecuted by an officer or member of such associations or union on behalf of and for the use of such association or union.

Section 1747an. 1. Every person who shall knowingly and wilfully violate sections 1747a or 1747am, except only those provisions relative to emergency repairs, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than six months or by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars.

2. Nothing contained in sections 1747a, 1747am, and 1747an shall require a new filing or registration in cases to which this act applies where there has heretofore been a compliance with section 1747a, or any acts amendatory thereof, by any person or persons, firm, co-partnership, corporation, association, or union of workmen.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 128.

AN ACT to amend section 1060 of the statutes, relating to boards of review and adjournment thereof.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1060 of the statutes is amended to read:
Section 1060. 1. The supervisors and clerk of each town, the mayor, clerk, and such other officer or officers, other than assessors, as the common council of each city shall, by ordinance determine, the president, clerk, and such other officer or officers, other than the assessor, as the board of trustees of each village shall by ordinance determine, shall constitute a board of review for such town, city, or village.

2. Such board shall meet annually on the last Monday of June at its town, city, or village clerk's office, provided that in towns it may meet at the place where the last annual town meeting was held. A majority shall constitute a quorum.

3. Notice of the time and place of meeting shall be posted up by such clerk in at least three public places in each town, village, or city, or ward thereof, at least four days prior to such meeting.

4. The town, city, or village clerk on such board of review shall be clerk thereof and shall keep an accurate record of all its proceedings. The board may adjourn from day to day or from time to time until its business is completed; provided that, if an adjournment be had for more than one day, a written notice shall be posted on the outer door of the place of meeting, stating to what time said meeting is adjourned.

5. The members of such board, except in cities of the first class, shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by resolution or ordinance of the town board, village board, or common council not exceeding, however, three dollars per day.

6. After the assessors shall have laid before the board of review their assessment roll of real estate with the sworn statements and valuations of personal property and bank stock, as provided by section 1061, the board of review shall remain in session one day from ten o'clock a. m. until four o'clock p. m. for taxpayers to appear and examine such assessment roll, sworn statements, and valuations and be heard in relation thereto; and upon reasonable cause being shown therefor, shall hold at least one adjourned session upon a subsequent day.

7. The provisions of this section shall not be so construed as to alter, repeal, amend, or modify the provisions of any city or village charter relating to the cases herein provided for.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 13, 1909.
