CHAPTER 349.

AN ACT to create section 1836m of the statutes, relating to the abandonment by railway companies of culverts and passes beneath tracks.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 1836m. It shall be unlawful for any railroad to so fill in, close up, or fence in any water-way, culvert, or underneath cattle pass of a size sufficient to permit the passage of cattle or other stock which shall have been maintained, allowed or permitted to be in and used as a passage way for cattle or other stock through or across the right-of-way for a period of five years as to prevent its use as a passage way for cattle or other stock without having first secured the consent in writing of the abutting land owners.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved June 10, 1909.
