

No. 609, S.]

[Published June 18, 1909.

CHAPTER 453.

AN ACT to create section 2622m of the statutes, relating to the change of place of trial of civil actions from a municipal to the circuit court and from the circuit to the municipal court.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 2622m. Whenever the parties or their attorneys shall so stipulate in writing, the place of trial of any civil action, over which the circuit and municipal courts have concurrent jurisdiction, pending in the circuit court, shall be changed from the circuit court to the municipal court; and whenever the parties or their attorneys so stipulate in writing, the place of trial of any civil action pending in the municipal court, as a court of record, shall be changed to the circuit court, and in either of the above cases the order of such change of place of trial shall be made by the judge before whom such civil action was pending.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved June 15, 1909.

No. 594, S.]

[Published June 18, 1909.

CHAPTER 454.

AN ACT to amend section 44—6 of the statutes; and to create section 44—6a of the statutes, relating to voting machines and the time polls shall be kept open in cities where voting is done exclusively on machines.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44—6 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 44—6. More than one voting machine may be used in any one polling place. The room in which the election is held shall have a railing separating that part of the room to be occupied by the election officers from that part of the room occupied by the voting machine or machines. The exterior of the voting machine and every part of the polling place shall be in plain view of the inspectors. The machine shall be so placed that no person on the opposite side of the railing can see or de-