CHAPTER 9.

AN ACT to amend section 146 and subsection 2 of section 157 of the statutes, relating to warrants upon the state treasurer.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 146 and subsection 2 of section 157 of the statutes are amended to read: Section 146. The secretary of state shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer payable to the claimant for the amount allowed by him upon every claim or account audited as aforesaid, specifying from what fund to be paid and the particular act or part of act which authorizes the same to be paid out of the state treasury, and the post office address of the payee; and he shall not credit the treasurer for any sum of money paid out by him otherwise than upon such warrants. Whenever for any reason it shall be impracticable for the secretary of state to sign his name personally to the warrants issued on the state treasury he may in his discretion designate some one in his department to sign his name to said warrants, and the state treasurer shall honor said signature the same as though signed in person by the secretary of state. Provided, however, there shall be first filed in the office of the state treasurer a written authority and reasons therefor and said statement shall be a sufficient authority for said action until it shall be revoked in writing.

Section 157. 2. To pay out of the state treasury, on demand, upon the warrants of the secretary of state, all sums authorized by law to be so paid if there be appropriate funds therein to pay the same, and when any such sum is required to be paid out of a particular fund it shall be paid out of such fund only. He shall pay no money out of the treasury or state depositories except in pursuance of a law authorizing the payment thereof, and he shall in no case pay any money from the treasury, or have credit for any money paid therefrom, except upon warrants of the secretary of state as hereinbefore provided for; and upon each such warrant, when payment is made in currency, he shall take the receipt, indorsed on or annexed thereto, of the payee therein named or his authorized agent or assignee.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
