CHAPTER 153.

AN ACT to amend section 4320 of the statutes, relating to the support of prisoners confined in jail on civil processes.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4320 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 4320. 1. Except as hereinafter provided, whenever a person is committed to jail on execution issued on a judgment recovered in a civil action, the creditor, his agent, or attorney shall advance to the jailer within twenty-four hours after such commitment, sufficient money to pay for the support of said prisoner during the time for which he may be imprisoned; and in case the money shall not be so advanced, or, if during the time the prisoner may be in confinement the money shall be expended in the support of such prisoner, the jailer shall forthwith discharge such prisoner from custody, and such discharge shall have the same effect as a discharge by order of the court.

2. Whenever a person is committed to jail because of refusal or failure to comply with any order of a court respecting the payment of alimony or suit money in a divorce action, it shall not be necessary to advance to the jailer money to pay for the support of such person, but the county in which such commitment shall be made shall be liable to the jailer for the support of the prisoner during the time for which he may be imprisoned.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 12, 1911.

CHAPTER 154.

AN ACT to create section 1900 of the statutes, relating to provisions common to all policies of insurance.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 1900. 1. No policy or contract of insurance shall be made, issued or delivered in this state containing any provision:

a. Limiting the time for beginning an action on the policy or contract to a time less than that prescribed by the statutes of limitations of this state, or specifically authorized by law.

b. Incorporating into the policy or contract any matter not fully set forth therein, or in a copy of any application, or of any
