CHAPTER 199.

AN ACT to amend section 496a of the statutes, relating to the supervision and course of study in free high schools.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 496a of the statutes is amended to read: Section 496a. The state superintendent shall prepare a course or courses of study suitable to be pursued in free high schools, publish the same and furnish the same upon application. He shall exercise such personal supervision and make such personal inspection of the work of all such schools as they seem to require and the other duties of his office may warrant; he shall examine or cause to be examined all teachers of high schools, required by law to pass special examinations to qualify them for teaching in high schools, and grant certificates to such as pass examinations satisfactorily, which certificates shall be in such form and for such time as he may prescribe, and shall authorize the holder to teach in such special place or places, or in the whole state, as the qualifications of the candidate may warrant. * * * (Section 452a) Said superintendent shall furnish suitable blanks for annual and special reports for all such schools, which shall require returns as to the number, age and sex of all pupils enrolled, the number in each class or year in the course of study, the number of pursuing English branches only, the number completing the course of study each year and such other statistics as may be deemed necessary.

(Am. 1911, c. 664, s. 22.)

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
