CHAPTER 20.

AN ACT to amend sections 5 and 14 of chapter 69, laws of 1891, entitled "An act to create a municipal court for the county of Polk."

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 5 and 14 of chapter 69, laws of 1891, are amended to read: Section 5. The judge of said municipal court of Polk county shall hold his office at the county seat of said county in some suitable room to be provided by * * * the county; provided that the same shall not be in any room adjoining or over any room where intoxicating liquors are sold; and provided, further, that the said judge shall not hold his office in that of any practicing attorney, unless such judge shall be the law partner of said attorney in which case said law partner shall not be engaged as attorney or counsel in any manner, matter, or proceeding before said court. Provided, further, however, that when the convenience of the parties and their witnesses to any action, matter, or proceeding pending in or to come before said municipal court require, and upon written stipulation therefor made by the said parties to such action, matter, or proceeding, or by their attorneys, and filed with the judge of said court, the said judge may, in his discretion, hold a session or sessions of said municipal court in any city, town, or village within the county of Polk, agreed upon by such stipulation, for the hearing or trial of the action, matter, or proceeding mentioned in such stipulation, and at some suitable room to be provided for by the parties to such action, matter or proceeding, such room to be specified in and by such stipulation.

SECTION 14. The same fees in all actions, civil and criminal, that are now allowed by law to justices of the peace, it shall be lawful for said municipal judge to charge and collect, and one dollar in addition thereto for each and every action, proceeding, or matter had or heard in * * * said court while the judge thereof is sitting for the hearing or trial of any such action, matter, or proceeding at the county seat of said county, and five dollars in addition thereto for each and every action, matter, or proceeding had or heard in said court while the judge thereof is sitting for the hearing or trial of any such action, matter, or proceeding in any city, town, or village in said county away from the county seat of said county of Polk, and ten cents for each mile traveled by said judge in going to any such city, town, or village and returning therefrom to the county seat of said county. All fines imposed and collected by said judge for the punishment of any criminal offense under the laws of this state, shall be paid over to the treasurer of said county in like manner as is provided by law for justices of the peace.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 20, 1911.
