CHAPTER 55.

AN ACT to amend section 8 of chapter 357, laws of 1891, conferring additional jurisdiction on the county court of Portage county.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8, chapter 357, laws of 1891, is amended to read: Section 8. In all actions, examinations, or proceedings in the county court under this act, the county judge shall have and receive the same fees as are now allowed by law to justices of the peace for like services; provided that in all matters, examinations, or proceedings of which the county court and judge thereof had jurisdiction before the passage of this act, it shall be lawful for the county judge to charge and receive the same fees and per diem as heretofore allowed by law for like services, to be paid in like manner. It shall be lawful for said judge to call in a stenographer to take testimony in any trial, examination, or proceeding before him under this act, which stenographer shall receive ten cents per folio for taking and transcribing said testimony, which shall be in lieu of all justice's fees for taking such testimony. The fees above specified shall, in all civil cases, be taxed as costs against the losing party; in criminal cases, they shall be returned to the county or to the city as part of the costs in the case. A transcribed copy of the notes so taken shall be filed in lieu of the minutes required by law to be taken by justices of the peace in like proceedings.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
