CHAPTER 72.

AN ACT to amend sections 813 and 845 of the statutes, relating to justices of the peace in towns.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 813 and 845 of the statutes are amended to read: Section 813. When a new town shall be organized, if there be one or more justices of the peace residing therein, they shall be deemed justices thereof and shall hold their offices according to their respective terms; and only so many justices shall be chosen as shall be necessary to make up the number of
* * * two in such town.

SECTION 845. There shall be * * * two justices of the peace in each town, of whom * * * one shall be elected at each annual town meeting. Their term of office shall be two years from the first Monday of May next following such town meeting; provided, that in all counties which contain a population of not less than one hundred thousand no justices of the peace shall be elected in the odd-numbered years, except to fill vacancies, and that in the even-numbered years * * * two justices of the peace shall be elected for the term of two years. Every vacancy shall be filled at the annual town meeting next ensuing, unless a special election shall have been held, and when so elected such justices shall hold only for the residue of the unexpired term. When a vacancy shall occur, or when any justice shall, from any cause, become permanently unable to perform his official duties the town board may appoint temporarily a suitable person to such office, to hold until it shall be filled by election and until their successors are elected and qualified.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
