

gress, other than a mere invitation to foreign nations, to participate in said exposition.

AND, WHEREAS, The House of Representatives of the United States of America, January 31st, 1911, by decisive vote, has chosen San Francisco as the city in which to hold the exposition commemorating the opening of the Panama Canal, now therefore be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That we do hereby approve and endorse the said action of the House of Representatives of the United States, in selecting San Francisco as the site for said exposition.

---

[No. 67, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 10.

Relating to the introduction of new bills, and creating a new rule.

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That there is created a rule to read: 44. A member or any committee desiring to introduce a bill after the close of the fifth week of the session shall send such bill to the clerk's desk, and the same shall be submitted to the committee on revision, and upon its approval, be referred to the committee on legislative procedure, of the house where such bill originates, which shall, within forty-eight hours, report thereon, recommending that the bill be received and read the first and second times, or that it be rejected. Such report shall stand as the action of the house unless the house on motion shall order otherwise.

---

[No. 94, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 11.

Relating to the public services and death of Honorable Carl C. Pope.

WHEREAS, Honorable Carl C. Pope, a former and distinguished member of Wisconsin legislatures and a prominent and respected citizen of this state, died at his home in Black River Falls, on the 23d day of February, 1911, and

WHEREAS, The life and energies of the deceased were given unsparingly to the political uplift and progress of this state, he having served as a member of the assembly in 1862 and 1863, and again in 1877 and 1878, and as a member of the senate in 1864 and 1865, and

WHEREAS, During the year 1877 he served with force and fidelity as chairman of the famous assembly judiciary committee of that session, and

WHEREAS, He was identified not only with the public life for many years, but likewise gave of his energies and abilities to the physical and moral upbuilding of the state, lending his aid and influence as a distinguished and brilliant member of the bar to the sturdy pioneers, whose efforts in behalf of the public welfare laid the lines which have since been followed; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That as a mark of respect, this legislature records in this manner its appreciation of the services of the Honorable Mr. Pope to the public interests of the state: and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be conveyed to the family of the deceased, attested by the signatures of the presiding officers and chief clerks of the senate and assembly, and that this expression of the sentiment of the senate and assembly be incorporated with the official proceedings of the day.

---

[No. 91, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 12.

Requesting the secretary of state to furnish to the legislature an estimate of the expenditures, as provided by bills already introduced, and also an estimate of the revenues of the state for the ensuing biennial period.

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the secretary of state be requested to furnish to the legislature an estimate of the expenditures, as provided by bills already introduced, and also an estimate of the revenues of the state for the ensuing biennial period.

---

[No. 92, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 13.

Relating to investigation of illegal and unauthorized acts of registered lobbyists and of all persons not registered, attempting directly or indirectly to improperly influence members of the legislature.

WHEREAS, By chapter 472, laws of 1905, the legislature of this state determined that it should be unlawful for any person employed for a pecuniary consideration, to act as legislative counsel or legislative agent or to attempt personally or directly to influence any member of the legislature to vote for or against any measure pending therein, otherwise than before the regular committees thereof when in session, or by newspaper publications or by public addresses or by written or printed statements, argu-