JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5.

Requesting the members of the United States senate and of the house of representatives from Wisconsin to vote for and use every effort to bring about the adoption of a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the federal constitution providing that United States senators shall be elected by the people of the several states.

WHEREAS, The following joint resolution proposing an amendment to the federal constitution providing that United States senators shall be elected by the people of the several states has been introduced in the United States senate:

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled (two-thirds of each house concurring therein), That in lieu of the first paragraph of section three of article one of the constitution of the United States, and in lieu of so much of paragraph two of the same section as relates to the filling of vacancies, and in lieu of all of paragraph one of section four of said article one, in so far as the same relates to any authority in congress to make or alter regulations as to the times or manner of holding elections for senators, the following be proposed as an amendment to the constitution, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states:

“The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote. The electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislatures.

“The times, places, and manner of holding elections for senators shall be as prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof.

“When vacancies happen in the representation of any state in the senate, the executive authority of such state shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies; provided, that the legislature of any state may empower the executive thereof, to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election, as the legislature may direct.
