CHAPTER 262.

AN ACT authorizing cities of the first, second and third classes to appropriate public money to aid in defraying the expenses of public exercises for the celebration of the centenary of Commodore Perry's victory over the British fleet in 1813.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be lawful for the common council of any city of the first, second or third class, at any regular or special meeting thereof, to vote a sum of money not exceeding five thousand dollars, for the purpose of aiding in defraying the expenses of public exercises in the year 1913 for the proper commemoration in any such city of the centenary of Commodore Perry's victory over the British fleet in 1813; which amount shall be appropriated out of the general or contingent fund of any such city and shall be paid to the committee having in charge the celebration in such city; provided, that such committee shall have been duly accredited by the Wisconsin Perry Victory Centennial Commission created under chapter 467 of the laws of Wisconsin for 1911.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
