CHAPTER 41.

AN ACT to amend sections 5731 and 588 of the statutes, relating to the charges for support of inmates at the home for the feeble-minded and at the state hospitals for the insane.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 5731 and 588 of the statutes are amended to read: Section 5731. All such persons as are described in the preceding section may be admitted to said home after such examination into their condition as is required to be made to determine the condition of persons who are alleged to be insane and for whom admission is sought to the state hospitals or county asylums for the insane. All the provisions of law relating to the examination and commitment of such alleged insane persons shall, so far as applicable, apply to persons whom it is sought to have committed to the home for the feeble-minded; and all the powers conferred upon the judges of the several courts as to such alleged insane persons and all the duties devolved upon such judges in relation to their examination and commitment shall be exercised in the examination and commitment of persons to said home, so far as such powers and duties are applicable. All persons resident of this state who may be committed to said home for the feeble-minded shall be maintained therein at the expense of the state; but the county in which any such person
