CHAPTER 468.

AN ACT to amend section 12 of chapter 8 of the laws of 1905, being part of chapter 115 of the laws of 1879, relating to the jurisdiction, procedure, powers and duties of the judge of the municipal court for Marathon county.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12 of chapter 8 of the laws of 1905 is amended to read: (Chapter 8, laws of 1905) Section 12. In all proceedings in any justice court of Marathon county or in the municipal court where any person shall be bound over for trial, such justice or the municipal judge may bind such offender over for trial either to the circuit court or municipal court of said county, whichever the defendant or a majority of them, if several are bound over jointly, may designate, but if not so designated, then to whichever such justice or such municipal judge may elect. In all such proceedings in said municipal court, any person so bound over for trial shall be bound over for trial in said municipal court, with the same procedure in all respects as if bound over by a justice of the peace to the circuit court.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved June 14, 1913.

CHAPTER 469.

AN ACT to create section 1797—10f of the statutes, requiring steam railway companies to equip their trains with medical supplies, and providing a penalty.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 1797—10f. 1. It shall be unlawful for any steam railroad company engaged in the transportation of passengers or freight of any kind whatsoever to run or attempt to run any passenger or freight train upon which passengers or employes may ride or travel that is not equipped with at least one medical emergency case which shall contain the following specified articles: two gauze bandages and two triangular pieces of gauze eighteen inches wide, and one pound of absorbent cotton.

2. Any such railroad company violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and any person or employe of such railroad who shall remove, or destroy or cause the removal or destruction of such articles after the railroad company has complied with the provisions of this act, shall be subject to the same penalty as provided herein against the railroad company.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved June 14, 1913.

CHAPTER 470.

AN ACT to create sections 1107b and 1107c of the statutes, relating to the collection of taxes against public service corporations.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There are added to the statutes two new sections to read: Section 1107b. In addition to the other remedies provided by law for the collection of taxes against real estate, an action of debt shall lie in the name of the town, city or village, and, after the tax is returned as delinquent, in the name of the county, for any tax heretofore or hereafter levied upon and extended against the property of any public service corporation as defined in section 1753—1 of the statutes, which property is subject to taxation like the property of individuals, and which tax remains unpaid after the last day of January in any year. Summons in such action shall issue at the request of the treasurer of the town, city, village or county, as the case may be; shall be served as provided in section 2637 of the statutes, and such action shall be subject to all of the rules of law and practice in this state applicable to actions of debt. The complaint in such action shall be served with the summons. Judgment in such action shall be entered and execution issued thereon as in other actions of debt. The judgment shall bear interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the date of entry until paid.

Section 1107c. In any action brought pursuant to section 1107b it shall be sufficient to entitle plaintiff to judgment in said action to allege and prove that the tax was regularly levied and extended upon the tax roll and that the same has not been paid; provided, that the defendant may defend against such action by first paying the amount of the tax with interest, penalties and charges into the county, town, city or village treasury.
