CHAPTER 477.

AN ACT to provide for the representation of the state of Wisconsin at the Panama-Pacific international exposition at San Francisco, California, celebrating the opening and commercial use of the Panama Canal, and making an appropriation therefor.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is created a commission to be composed of three members and to be known as the Panama-Pacific exposition commission, to represent the state of Wisconsin at the Panama-Pacific international exposition, to be held in San Francisco, California, in nineteen hundred and fifteen, and there celebrate the completion and commercial use of the Panama Canal. The members of said commission shall be appointed by the governor. No member of the 1913 legislature shall be eligible to appointment on said commission.

SECTION 2. Said commission shall encourage and promote a full and complete exhibit of the commercial, industrial, agricultural, live stock, and dairy interests of the state and its citizens at such exposition and celebration, and shall provide, furnish and maintain during the exposition a building or buildings for a state exhibit and for the official headquarters of the state, and for the comfort and convenience of its citizens and exhibitors. Said commission shall within thirty days after its appointment and upon notification by the secretary of state convene in the city of Madison, at the state capitol, and elect a chairman and vice-chairman, and perfect its organization for the transaction of the duties devolving upon it by reason of this act.

SECTION 3. The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be entitled to the actual necessary expenses incurred while in discharge of duties imposed upon them by the commission. Such commission may appoint a secretary and fix his compensation for all services to be performed in carrying out the provisions of this act, and the commission may also provide for such other clerical assistance and office facilities in this state or in San Francisco as it deems necessary, but no salaries or expenses shall be incurred for a longer period than ninety days after the close of the exposition.

SECTION 4. The sum of seventy-five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary for the accomplishment of the above specified purposes, is appropriated out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated. Of the money appropriated one-third shall be available in nineteen hundred and thirteen; one-third shall be available in nineteen hundred and fourteen and the balance thereof available in nineteen hundred and fifteen. Such money shall be paid by the state treasurer on the warrant of the secretary of state issued upon a requisition signed by the chairman and vice-chairman of the commission, accompanied by an estimate of the expenses for the payment of which the money so drawn is to be applied. Within ninety days after the close of the exposition, such commission shall make a verified report to the governor of the disbursements made by it, and shall return to the state treasury the unexpended balance of money drawn in pursuance of this act. No indebtedness or obligation shall be incurred under this act in excess of the appropriation herein made.

SECTION 5. The commission shall render to the governor such reports as he may from time to time demand.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
