CHAPTER 511.

AN ACT to amend section 905 of the statutes, relating to the power of village boards to order improvements of streets.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 905 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 905. 1. The village board may cause any street, or any part of any street, not less than sixteen rods in length to be graded, paved, macadamized or otherwise improved, *including the construction of curbs * * * upon * * * a vote of not less than three-fourths of its members. * *  For the purpose of so improving any street * * * the village board may levy and cause to be collected upon the lots, tracts or parcels of ground * * * fronting or abutting upon such street or part of street improved, * * * and upon the owners thereof, a tax sufficient to pay the expense of constructing such improvement as ordered opposite such property to the center of the street or such proportion thereof, not less than half, as they shall deem justly assessable to such property, if they shall think the whole ought not to be so assessed, in which case the remainder shall be paid from the village treasury. * * * If any tax levied under this section shall prove insufficient to pay the cost or proportion thereof assessed to such property the village board may levy an additional tax thereon to make good such deficiency.

2. All proceedings had in any village before this section contained all of its present provisions are declared valid and effectual if such proceedings included all present requirements.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect when published.
