CHAPTER 18.

AN ACT to detach certain territory from the towns of Round Lake and Reserve and to create the town of Hunter, to provide for town meetings and for a settlement between said towns.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All that territory within township forty north, range five west, township forty north, range six west, and township forty north and range seven west, heretofore constituting a part of the town of Round Lake, in Sawyer county, Wisconsin, is hereby detached from said town of Round Lake and all that territory within the north half of township forty north, range six west, heretofore constituting a part of the town of Reserve in said county is hereby detached from said town of Reserve; and such territory herein detached from the towns of Round Lake and Reserve is created and constituted as a separate town to be known and designated as the town of Hunter.

SECTION 2. On the first Tuesday of April, 1915, the qualified electors of the said town of Hunter shall meet at the schoolhouse, known as the West Forks schoolhouse, in the southeast quarter of northwest quarter of section fourteen, township forty north, range seven west, in the said town of Hunter; and shall by ballot, elect town officers for said town; and for the purposes of said election, the qualified electors of such town, assembled at the place aforesaid, shall, between the hours of nine and eleven o'clock in the forenoon of said day, choose three of their number to act as inspectors of said election, and such electors shall, before entering upon their duties as said inspectors, take and subscribe the usual oath of office, and file the same with their returns; and the inspectors of such town shall canvass and return the votes cast at such election in all respects as provided by law for inspectors at annual town meetings; and the qualified electors of such town so assembled, may vote for all officers to be chosen on said day, and the votes cast for such officers shall be counted, canvassed and returned in the same manner, and shall have the same effect as in other annual town meetings; and said electors so assembled shall have full power to make all provisions for the government of such town as are now authorized by statute to be exercised and made at the annual meeting of any town.

SECTION 3. Notice of said town meeting shall be given by the posting of a copy of this act in at least six public places in said town of Hunter at least five days before the time of holding said first town meeting, by any duly qualified elector of said town who shall make a proper affidavit of such posting and file the same on the day of said first town meeting with the inspectors chosen to conduct said first town meeting.

SECTION 4. When said town meeting shall have been held as herein provided, and the town officers required by law duly elected, the said town of Hunter shall be deemed and shall be duly organized, and shall possess all the rights, powers, privileges and authority, and shall be subjected to the usual liabilities of other towns in the state of Wisconsin. After the said first town meeting all annual meetings shall be held on the day provided by law for the holding of town meetings in other towns in the state of Wisconsin.

SECTION 5. The assets and liabilities of the said towns of Round Lake and Hunter shall be proportioned to said town of Hunter according to the provisions of section 672 of the statutes, and the liability, if any, so proportioned and the credits and assets, if any, so proportioned, shall be paid according to the provisions of said section 672 of the statutes.

SECTION 6. The assets and liabilities of the said towns of Reserve and Hunter shall be proportioned to said town of Hunter according to the provisions of section 672 of the statutes, and the liability, if any, so proportioned and the credits and assets, if any, so proportioned, shall be paid according to the provision of said section 672 of the statutes.

SECTION 7. The town boards of the towns of Round Lake, Reserve and Hunter shall, on the eleventh day of May, 1915, meet at the usual polling place of the town of Round Lake for the purpose of making a settlement between the said towns according to the provisions of this act; and at such meeting or at any subsequent or adjourned meeting held by said town boards, any three of the supervisors shall have full power and authority to send for any persons, books, papers and records necessarily involved in the settlement between said two towns. The town clerk of the town of Round Lake shall be and act as clerk of such joint meeting, and the town clerks of the towns of Reserve and Hunter shall be present and assist; sufficient duplicates or copies of all proceedings had shall be made in order that each town may have at least one for the use and information of the town clerk and town board of supervisors thereof. Each town shall be chargeable with the expense and for the services and per diem of its own officers only.

SECTION 8. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 19.

AN ACT to amend section 926—133 of the statutes, relating to central polling places in cities of the fourth class having a population of five thousand or less.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 926—133 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 926—133. In cities of the fourth class, however organized, having a population, according to the last federal census, of five thousand or less, the common council may provide that all primary and other elections shall be held at a central polling place, consisting of a single room in the city hall or in some building centrally located in such city, and all elections in and for each of the wards of such city shall be held at the place so designated. There shall be provided for use, and shall be used at such polling place, one ballot box for each ward in such city, and such ballot boxes shall be numbered according to wards. The inspectors of election shall deposit the ballot of the voters of any ward in the ballot box provided for such ward. At such polling place all primary and other elections shall be conducted by three inspectors of election, two clerks of election, and two ballot clerks, to be appointed as now provided by law, who shall conduct the election for all wards according to law. Such election officials shall make separate election returns for each ward.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
