CHAPTER 210.

AN ACT to amend section 875m of the statutes, relating to the election and term of office of village officers.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 875m of the statutes is amended to read: Section 875m. Villages shall have a president and six trustees unless its charter shall otherwise provide and shall elect them as follows: The president shall be elected annually. On the first Tuesday in April following the taking effect of this act, one-half of the trustees shall be elected for a term of one year and one-half of the trustees shall be elected for a term of two years and each year thereafter one-half of the trustees shall be elected for a term of two years; provided, that in villages having an odd number of trustees, the village board shall by ordinance determine the number to be elected at such election held on the first Tuesday in April following the taking effect of this act for a term of one year, and the number to be elected for a term of two years, which number shall be one-half the number of said body as near as may be; provided, that in any village, which at its last annual charter election prior to the taking effect of this act elected one-half of its trustees for a term of two years, said trustees so elected for two years may continue in office for the balance of the term for which so elected, and in all such villages at the first annual charter election after the passage of this act there shall be no trustees elected for the term of one year. Annually thereafter the trustees of said village shall be elected for two years; provided, that the president, * * * trustees, clerk, treasurer, assessor, constable and police justice of all villages in counties having a population of one hundred and fifty thousand or more, shall be elected for a term of two years, at the municipal election held in said villages on the first Tuesday in April, of each year in which is to be held a general election for state and county officers.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 211.

AN ACT to create section 3346m of the statutes, relating to liens of jewelers, watchmakers and silversmiths.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 3346m. Every jeweler, watchmaker or silversmith who shall alter, repair or do any work on any article of personal property at the request of the owner or legal possessor of such property, shall have a lien upon and may retain the possession of any such article until the charges for such alteration, repairing or other work have been paid. If such debt remains unpaid for one year or more any such jeweler, watchmaker or silversmith may sell such article at private or public sale, and the proceeds, after first paying the expenses of sale, shall be applied in payment of the debt, the balance, if any, to be paid over to the county clerk of the county where the sale is held in trust for the debtor. Before any such sale is held, notice in writing must be given the debtor of the amount due and the time and place of sale. If the debtor's residence is known such notice must be mailed to his last known street address. If the debtor's address is unknown such notice must be given by the posting thereof in the county courthouse of the county or the city, village, or town hall where the jeweler, watchmaker or silversmith resides.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
