CHAPTER 281.

AN ACT to create section 4049m of the statutes, relating to the administration of estates.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 4049m. If upon application for letters testamentary, as provided in section 3787 of the statutes, or for letters of administration, as provided in section 3808 of the statutes, it shall appear that any person interested as heir, devisee or legatee is a resident of a foreign country, the court shall cause notice of the pending of and the day appointed for the hearing of such application to be given to a consul, vice consul, or consular agent of such foreign country by depositing in a post office a copy of the notice required under the provisions of the above mentioned sections of the statutes, securely inclosed in an envelope, the postage duly paid, addressed to such consul, vice consul or consular agent at his post-office address, at least twenty days previous to the day appointed for hearing such application. The notice required under the provisions of this section may be waived by such consul, vice consul or consular agent in the manner provided in section 3787a of the statutes.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 23, 1915.

CHAPTER 282.

AN ACT to amend subsection 1 of section 4560a—50 of the statutes, relating to the number and size of certain fish which may be taken.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection 1 of section 4560a—50 of the statutes is amended to read: (Section 4560a—50) 1. It shall be unlawful and is hereby prohibited in this state:

(a) For any person, persons, firm, company or corporation to take, catch, * * * kill or have in his or their possession pike of any variety less than twelve inches, or pickerel of any variety of less than * * * sixteen inches in length or any catfish of any kind of less than one and one-half pounds, round or undressed weight, or less than one pound dressed weight, or more than twenty pounds of such variety of fish in any one day or in lieu thereof, not to exceed six fish of lawful size, or any black bass, yellow bass, green bass or Oswego bass of a length less than ten inches, or any white bass or crappie less than seven inches long. For the purpose of enforcing the laws in which is specified the length of fish which may be had in possession, sold or transported, to determine the length of such fish, measurements shall be taken from the tip of the nose to the tip of the tail; and this shall be the rule for measurements in all such cases.

(b) For any person, persons, firm, company or corporation to have whitefish of less weight than two pounds round or undressed, or one and one-half pounds dressed, or to sell, offer for sale, or transport any undersized whitefish.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 23, 1915.

CHAPTER 283.

AN ACT to create subsections 2, 3 and 4 of section 51.34 of the statutes, relating to actions affecting the license fees of insurance companies.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There are added to section 51.34 of the statutes three new subsections to read: (Section 51.34) 2. No suit shall be brought to restrain or enjoin the collection of any license fee imposed or provided for by sections 51.31 to 51.34, inclusive. Any company, corporation, or association, aggrieved by the payment of any such license fee, may maintain a suit against the state for the recovery thereof in the circuit court for Dane county within six months from the time of the payment thereof. The state may be served with a summons in such suit by delivering a copy to the attorney-general or leaving it at his office in the capitol with one of his assistants.

3. No action shall be commenced to compel the issuance of the license provided for by subsection 5 of section 1947 until the fee imposed by sections 51.31 to 51.34, inclusive, shall have been fully paid.
