CHAPTER 303.

AN ACT to create section 94jm of the statutes, relating to changing the name of a political party.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 94jm. 1. The Social Democratic party of this state may change its name by following the procedure hereinafter provided.

2. The state central committee of such political party may call a convention for the purpose of changing the name of its political party by stating in its call therefor the time and place for the holding of the convention and that the purpose of holding such convention is to change the name of the party to some specific name described in the call. Such convention shall be held at least two months prior to the holding of the September primary election. The proposed change in the name of such party shall be described by resolution to be presented to the convention. If a majority of the convention vote in favor of such resolution, such political party shall be deemed to have accepted and adopted the name agreed upon and adopted by the convention.

3. A copy of the resolution describing the change in name of the party and adopted by the convention shall be certified by the chairman and secretary of the convention and shall, within five days after the holding of such convention, be filed with the secretary of state. Thereafter such political party shall be known by the new name and such party under its new name shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges exercised and enjoyed by the party under its former name.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
