CHAPTER 130

AN ACT to create sections 1418—1, 1418—2 and 1418—3 of the statutes, relating to rendering plants, and providing a penalty.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There are added to the statutes three new sections to read: Section 1418—1. The state board of health shall make and enforce necessary rules and regulations relating to the location, construction and operation of rendering plants or other similar institutions where the carcasses of dead animals or other similar products are handled and disposed of. The board may upon its own motion or upon written complaint inspect and examine any such rendering plant, and if it shall find that the same is being operated in an insanitary manner, or that it is so located, constructed, drained or is maintained in such manner that a nuisance is created, or other conditions exist which are dangerous to the public health, the state board of health shall make such order, or orders, as may be necessary to properly rectify and remedy any such method or manner of operation, or any such conditions so as to protect the public health. Such order shall specify the time within which the same shall be complied with, and shall be delivered in person, or by registered mail, to the person to whom the same is directed.

2. The rules and regulations adopted by the state board of health in conformity with this section shall be published in the official state paper, and when so published, they shall have the force of law.

Section 1418—2. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of section 1418—1, or any rule or regulation adopted by the state board of health, governing the location, construction, drainage or operation of rendering plants, or other similar institutions, or any lawful order issued by the state board of health, governing the location, construction, drainage, or operation of rendering plants or other similar institutions, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon a conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months.

Section 1418—3. The district attorney of each county shall prosecute every person violating any of the provisions of section 1418—1, or any order or rule of the state board of health adopted in compliance with said section, and shall fully cooperate, with said board in the enforcement of the laws, rules and regulations relating to rendering plants. The provisions of this act shall not apply to cities of the first class.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 27, 1917.

CHAPTER 131

AN ACT to repeal section 1010 of the statutes and to create a new section of the statutes to be numbered 1010, relating to the reporting of agricultural statistics.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1010 of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 2. There is added to the statutes a new section to be numbered and to read: Section 1010. 1. It shall be the duty of the assessor of each village, city, town or county, at the time of making the annual assessment of property, to collect such statistics in relation to the principal farm products and agricultural resources as may be required by the department of agriculture. Such tabulation of statistics shall be forwarded to the department of agriculture on the date of the meeting of the town board of review, but not later than July fifteenth; and a summary thereof, in duplicate, shall be delivered at the same time to the town clerk, one of said duplicates to be forwarded without delay to the county clerk.

2. The department of agriculture shall prepare and furnish to the proper officers such blanks and instructions as may be necessary for carrying out the provisions of this section.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 27, 1917.
