CHAPTER 148

AN ACT to create section 4928a of the statutes, relating to credit for good conduct for convicts of the Wisconsin state prison working on construction work or other work outside of the prison walls.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 4928a. Every inmate who is now or may be hereafter confined in the Wisconsin state prison or house of correction and who shall be placed out on construction or other work outside of the prison walls on the honor system and shall conduct himself in a peaceful and obedient manner and shall faithfully perform all the duties required of him shall be entitled to a diminution of time of five days for each month of thirty days that he is so employed outside of the prison walls, in addition to the credit for good conduct prescribed by section 4928 of the statutes.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 2, 1917.

CHAPTER 149

AN ACT to create section 1346c of the statutes, relating to repairs of sidewalks in towns.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to be numbered and to read: Section 1346c. In any town situated in any county having a population of three hundred thousand or over, whenever public convenience or safety requires that any sidewalk in such town, whether constructed of wood, cinders, concrete, brick, stone or of any other material whatsoever, be repaired, the same may be rebuilt and the defective sidewalk removed and replaced with cinder sidewalk, in lieu of other material, at the option of such town board of supervisors. In exercising the powers herein conferred the supervisors shall follow the procedure established by section 1346a, as to notice, the making of repairs, the certifying to the town clerk of the cost thereof, and the adding of such cost by such town clerk to the next tax roll, opposite to the description of property returned. Such cost shall be collected as other taxes.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 2, 1917.

CHAPTER 150

AN ACT to create section 1959—22n and subsection 5 of section 172—14 of the statutes, relating to the valuation of fraternal benefit societies by the commissioner of insurance, and making an appropriation.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 1959—22n. Any domestic fraternal benefit society may request the commissioner of insurance to have a valuation of its outstanding certificates and an apportionment of its surplus made by the insurance department. Such society shall pay to the commissioner of insurance a fee not to exceed ten dollars per day for the time actually spent by each employee in making a valuation and apportionment of its surplus. The commissioner of insurance shall pay such valuation fees into the state treasury.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
