CHAPTER 271

AN ACT to amend section 919d of the statutes, relating to the apportionment of the cost of sewer construction in villages.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 919d of the statutes is amended to read: Section 919d. The cost of the construction of a main sewer for the purpose of an outlet for the branch sewers, and the cost of the construction of all main, surface or storm water sewers in excess of the cost of a minor sewer eight inches in diameter, and the cost of all sewers in street and alley crossings, shall be paid out of the general sewer fund. The cost of the construction and operation of a sewage disposal plant and of the construction of manholes, catch basins, for the receiving of water from gutters and of the overflow pipes connecting them with the sewers, and of the repairing and cleaning of sewers and all expenditures for temporary work necessary to carry out the system of sewerage as adopted, and all cost of constructing sewers not provided for by special assessment, shall be paid out of the general sewer fund. The cost of construction of minor sewers and such portion of the cost of the construction of main, surface or storm water sewers as shall be equal to the cost of construction of a minor sewer eight inches in diameter, shall be paid out of the moneys derived from special assessments on the lots, pieces or parcels of land abutting on the street along which any such sewer shall be constructed as hereinafter provided.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 23, 1917.
