CHAPTER 457

AN ACT to amend section 2247 of the statutes, relating to marginal entries of satisfactions of mortgages.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2247 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 2247. Any mortgage which shall have been recorded may be *wholly * * * satisfied or satisfied to the extent of any payment thereon* by an entry in the margin of the record thereof, acknowledging the whole or partial satisfaction thereof, signed by the mortgagee, his personal representative or assignee in the presence of the register of deeds or his deputy, who shall subscribe the same as a witness; or by the presentation to the register of deeds in whose custody the record shall be of a certificate executed by the mortgagee, his personal representative or assignee, and acknowledged or proved and certified as hereinbefore prescribed to entitle conveyances to be recorded, specifying therein that such mortgage has been *wholly or partially paid or otherwise satisfied * * * and the extent of such satisfaction or discharge if only partial*; and either such discharge shall have the same effect to the extent specified as a like deed of release by the mortgagee duly executed, acknowledged and recorded, and in counties maintaining tract indices, said marginal satisfactions shall be entered in said tract indices by the register of deeds of said counties.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 20, 1917.
