

at once, in writing, the principal or teacher of such school and the librarian of all libraries in any such town, village or city, giving the names of all families where the disease exists. If the rules of the state board of health provide for the exclusion from school of teachers, or pupils from homes where such disease exists, the health officer shall request the principal of the school to exclude from school attendance all such persons until a written order signed by the health officer permitting attendance at school is presented.

2. Whenever the principal or teacher of the school has been notified of the prevalence of a dangerous communicable disease in the school district, or whenever the principal or teacher of the school knows or suspects that a dangerous communicable disease is present in the school district, it shall be the duty of such principal to at once notify the health officer of the town, village or city where the schoolhouse is located, of such absence from school on account of sickness. The health officer must then investigate all such cases, to determine whether or not a dangerous communicable disease is present in such family.

3. Library books shall not be taken into a home where a dangerous communicable disease exists, and shall not be returned to the library from a home where such disease exists or has recently occurred unless disinfected as hereinafter provided. Infected books, or books suspected of being infected, shall be burned, unless thoroughly disinfected by or under the direction of the local health officer.

Section 1408b. Parents, guardians, or persons having custody of any child or children, shall not permit such child or children, if afflicted with a dangerous communicable disease, to attend school. * * *

CHAPTER 54

AN ACT to authorize certain persons therein named to construct and maintain a toll bridge across the Wisconsin river in Grant and Crawford counties, and providing a penalty.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Henry Otto, R. W. Fallis and M. R. Munson, their associates, heirs and assigns, are hereby authorized and empowered to build and maintain a toll bridge across the Wisconsin river, from points in sections sixteen, seventeen and eighteen in township six north, range six west, providing said bridge is constructed within five years after the passage and publication of this act. A suitable draw shall be constructed in said bridge, of sufficient width, not less, however, than sixty feet in the clear when open, for the free passage of steamboats, and the same shall be so located and of sufficient height, as not to obstruct the free passage of rafts with their deck loading, and of logs, timber and lumber passing down said river, and such draw shall be free of charge for the free passage of steamboats at all times when it shall be desirable to pass up or down said river with such boat or boats.

SECTION 2. The said Henry Otto, R. W. Fallis and M. R. Munson, their associates, heirs and assigns, shall have the power and legal right immediately after the completion of said bridge, to demand, receive and collect tolls for passage over said bridge, at rates not exceeding the following: for any vehicle drawn by two horses, mules or oxen or for automobiles, twenty-five cents; for any vehicle drawn by one horse or mule, fifteen cents; for horses or cattle in droves of ten or less, five cents each; when the same are in droves of more than ten, three cents each; sheep or swine in droves of ten or less, three cents each; if in droves of more than ten, two cents each; and for each footman, five cents each way.

SECTION 3. Said Henry Otto, R. W. Fallis, M. R. Munson, their associates, heirs and assigns, shall keep posted upon a conspicuous place on said bridge, the rates of toll established by them, not exceeding the rate allowed by this act.

SECTION 4. Any person who shall forcibly or fraudulently pass over the bridge authorized by this act, without paying the legal toll, shall be guilty of trespass, and shall for each offense forfeit the sum of five dollars to and for the legal owners of said bridge, to be recovered with cost as in other actions of trespass, in any court having competent jurisdiction.

SECTION 5. The right to amend or repeal this act is hereby expressly reserved.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved March 29, 1917.
