

of the United States government, and as a tribute of respect from his fellow members

Be it further resolved, That this resolution be duly entered in the journals of the two houses, and that a copy thereof, suitably engrossed and signed by the governor of the state and by the presiding officers of the two houses, and attested by the chief clerks thereof, be forwarded to Mr. Campbell.

[No. 116, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 30.

Conveying expressions of appreciation to the members of the capitol commission.

WHEREAS, The terms of office of the members of the capitol commission expire on July first of the present year; and

WHEREAS, From the thought and labors of the members of this commission has sprung Wisconsin's magnificent capitol building, surpassed by no other capitol building in the United States; and

WHEREAS, These honorable and public spirited men have not only served Wisconsin faithfully and otherwise well, but have devoted their time and energies to the planning and construction of this wonderful building without compensation. Now, therefor, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That this legislature, for and on behalf of the people of the state of Wisconsin, and for and on its own behalf, hereby conveys to the members of the capitol commission, collectively and individually, expressions of appreciation for a great work well done. Be it further

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions suitably engrossed and attested by the signatures of the presiding officers of the two houses be forwarded to the present members, former members, and to the families of deceased members of the capitol commission.

[No. 122, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 31.

Referring to the next legislature a proposed amendment to the constitution.

WHEREAS, A majority of the members elected to each of the two houses of the legislature have agreed to the following proposed amendment to section 21 of article IV of the constitution:

(Article IV) Section 21. Each member of the legislature shall receive for his services * * * *such sum * * * to be paid at such times and in such manner as shall be prescribed by law. * *  The compensation prescribed for members of the legislature immediately prior to the adoption of this amendment shall continue in force until changed by the legislature in a manner consistent with the other provisions of this constitution.

Be it resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That this proposed amendment be referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election, and that the same shall be published for three months previous to the time of holding such election.

[No. 123, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 32.

Referring to the next legislature a proposed amendment to the constitution.

WHEREAS, A majority of the members elected to each of the two houses of the legislature have agreed to the following proposed amendment to sections 6 and 7 of article VII of the constitution: (Article VII) Section 6. The legislature may alter the limits, decrease or increase the number of circuits, making them as compact and convenient as practicable, and bounding them by county lines; but no such alteration, decrease or increase shall have the effect to remove a judge from office. In case of an increase of circuits, the judge or judges shall be elected as provided in this constitution and receive a salary not less than that herein provided for judges of the circuit court.

SECTION 7. For each circuit there shall be chosen by the qualified electors thereof, one or more circuit judges * * * *as the legislature may, from time to time, authorize. * *  Every circuit judge shall reside in the circuit from which he is elected, and shall hold his office for such term and receive such compensation as the legislature shall prescribe.

Be it resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That this proposed amendment be referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election, and that the same shall be published for three months previous to the time of holding such election.