CHAPTER 14.

AN ACT to detach certain territory from the towns of Summit, Gordon and Wascott in Douglas county, to create the town of Dairyland and to reorganize school districts therein.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Township forty-three north, range fourteen west is detached from the town of Wascott, Douglas county, township forty-four north, range fourteen west is detached from the town of Gordon in said county and townships forty-three and forty-four north, range fifteen west from the town of Summit in said county and such territory detached from the towns of Wascott, Gordon and Summit is created and constituted as a new town to be known and designated as the town of Dairyland.

SECTION 2. The first town meeting of said town of Dairyland shall be held at the schoolhouse known as the Thompson schoolhouse located on southeast corner of section seven, in township forty-three north, range fourteen west. Such town meeting shall be held on the day appointed by law for the holding of annual town meetings in the year 1919; and the qualified electors of said town of Dairyland shall by ballot elect town officers for said town, and exercise all other powers and make such provisions for the town government as are now authorized by statute to be exercised and made at the town meeting of any town.

SECTION 3. For the purpose of the election hereinbefore provided, the qualified electors of the said town of Dairyland, assembled at the place aforesaid, shall, between the hours of nine and eleven o'clock, in the forenoon of said day, choose three of their number to act as inspectors of said election, and such inspectors shall, before entering upon their respective duties, severally take the usual oath of office and file the same with their returns; and such inspectors shall respectively canvass and return the votes cast at such election in all respects as provided by law for inspectors at annual town meetings. A town clerk and also necessary clerks of election shall be appointed by said inspectors, or a majority thereof, to assist said inspectors in conducting said town meeting and in canvassing and returning the votes cast at such election.

SECTION 4. Notice of such town meeting shall be given by the posting of a copy of this act in at least six public places in said town of Dairyland, at least five days before the time of holding said first town meeting, which notice may be posted in such town by any duly qualified elector thereof, who shall make a proper affidavit of such posting and file the same on the day of said first town meeting of his town with the inspectors chosen to conduct said first town meeting.

SECTION 5. When said town meeting shall have been held as herein provided, and the town officers as required by law duly elected for said town, the said town of Dairyland shall be deemed to be, and shall be duly organized, and shall possess all the rights, powers, privileges and authority, and shall be subjected to the usual liabilities of other towns in the state of Wisconsin. After the said first town meeting in said town all annual meetings shall be held on the day provided by law for the holding of town meetings in other towns in the state of Wisconsin.

SECTION 6. The assets and liabilities of the said towns of Wascott, Gordon and Summit shall be apportioned to the said town of Dairyland pro rata in the proportion provided in section 672 of the statutes.

SECTION 7. The supervisors of the towns of Wascott, Gordon, Summit and Dairyland shall on the fifteenth day of April, 1919, meet at the Thompson school located as described in section 2 of this act, for the purpose of making a settlement between the said towns, according to the provisions of this act; and at such meeting or at any subsequent or adjourned meeting held by said town boards of supervisors, any three of the supervisors shall have full power and authority to send for any persons, books, papers and records necessarily involved in the settlement between said towns. The town clerk of the town of Dairyland shall be and act as clerk of such joint meeting, and the town clerks of the towns of Wascott, Gordon and Summit shall be present and assist; sufficient duplicates or copies of all proceedings had shall be made in order that each town may have at least one for the use and information of the town clerk and town board of supervisors thereof. Each town shall be chargeable with the expense and for the services and per diem of its own officers only.

SECTION 8. At such joint meeting of said town boards, such town boards shall have power, without further notice, to reorganize the school districts in said towns and to provide for the apportionment of the assets and liabilities of said school districts and for the collection and payment of any amount due any town because of such apportionment.

SECTION 9. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
