CHAPTER 220.

AN ACT to create section 720a and to amend section 721, relating to sheriffs, deputy sheriffs and jailors in counties having a population of two hundred thousand or more.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: Section 720a. In counties having a population of two hundred thousand or more, the sheriff shall not be responsible for the acts, defaults or misconduct in office of either his jailor or his deputies, except where such deputy or jailor acts under the express direction of the sheriff. Each deputy and jailor shall execute and deliver to the county and the sheriff, a bond in manner and form as provided by section 720, except that the part thereof relating to liability of the undersheriff and deputies shall be omitted. Each deputy sheriff and jailor shall be liable for his acts, defaults or misconduct in office in the same manner and to the same extent that the sheriff and his executors and administrators would otherwise be liable, and actions therefor shall be prosecuted directly against such deputy or jailor and the surety on his official bond.

SECTION 2. Section 721 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 721. Except as provided in section 720a. every sheriff shall be responsible for every default or misconduct in office of his undersheriff, jailor and deputies during the term of his office, and after the death, resignation or removal from office of such sheriff as well as before; and an action for any such default or misconduct may be prosecuted against such sheriff and his sureties on his official bond or against the executors and administrators of such sheriff.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
