CHAPTER 223.

AN ACT to amend section 1418a—1 of the statutes relating to sewer and water connections.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1418a—1 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1418a—1. 1. Any city or incorporated village having systems of waterworks and sewerage may by ordinance require dwelling houses or other buildings used for human habitation within the corporate limits of such city or village, when such building or buildings are located adjacent to a public sewer and a public water supply, or in a block through which sewer and water systems extend, to be connected with such sewer and water systems in such manner as may be deemed necessary by the board of health, or by the board of public works where such board exists. If any person or persons fails, neglects or refuses to so connect any building or buildings with the public sewer and water systems of such city or incorporated village, as herein provided, for more than ten days after being notified to do so in writing by the board of health or the board of public works, any such city or incorporated village may cause such building or buildings to be connected with said sewer and water systems. In case such city or village shall cause such building or buildings to be connected with said public sewer and water systems, the costs and expenses thereof shall be assessed as a special tax against the property and premises so connected, and such amount shall, subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of this section, be levied and collected in the same manner as other taxes.

2. Such amount shall be levied and collected in one sum unless, within thirty days after the completion of the work of making such sewer and water connections, the owner of such property and premises shall file a written option with the city or village clerk stating that he cannot pay such amount in one sum and asking that such amount be levied and collected in not to exceed five equal annual instalments. If such option is so filed, such amount shall be collected in instalments and the instalment due each year together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date of the completion of such work shall be levied and collected. The balance of such amount together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum shall remain and constitute a special tax lien against such property and premises until wholly paid; provided, however, that the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to cities of the first class.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
