

either of the state departments in such paper shall be deemed official. Until a further designation is made the * * * Milwaukee Sentinel of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, is declared to be the official state paper.

SECTION 2. Section 35.69 of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 3. A new section is added to the statutes to be numbered and to read: 35.69 The compensation to the official state paper for the original printing of the laws and to said paper and all other newspapers printed in cities of the first class for reprinting any law or for printing all election and other notices, all accounts, fiscal statements, advertisements, proclamations or other matter required to be published at the expense of the state shall equal the amount regularly received by such newspaper for the same amount of advertising space, not exceeding, however, eighty cents per folio for the first insertion and forty-five cents per folio for each subsequent insertion. The rates in the case of other papers shall not exceed sixty cents per folio for the first insertion and forty-five cents per folio for each subsequent insertion. The price in full for the publication in any paper of advertisements of the sale of school, university or other public lands shall not exceed fifty cents each description whenever the advertisement contains fifteen descriptions or more. All expenditures for transportation, communication, and delivery incidental to any such printing shall be borne by the paper doing the same.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved February 28, 1919.

No. 62, A.]

[Published March 5, 1919.

CHAPTER 5.

AN ACT to create section 6.015 of the statutes, relating to the granting to women the right to vote for presidential electors.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 6.015 Every woman who is a citizen of this state, of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, who has resided within the state one year and in the election district where she offers to vote ten days preceding any election at which presidential electors are to be elected and who is not a pauper or excluded by section 2 of article 3 of the constitution, may vote at such election for presidential electors, in any town, city or village in which she has so resided. At such election there shall be provided separate ballot boxes for ballots cast by women for presidential electors, and where registration is required, women shall register in the same manner as male voters.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved Feb. 28, 1919.

No. 79, S.]

[Published March 5, 1919.

CHAPTER 6.

AN ACT to repeal subsections (2) and (7) of section 20.15 of the statutes, and to create a new subsection of section 20.15 of the statutes, relating to portraits of the ex-governors, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsections (2) and (7) of section 20.15 of the statutes are repealed.

SECTION 2. There is added to section 20.15 of the statutes a new subsection to read:

(20.15) (2) To the governor, one thousand and fifty dollars, for the purchase of an oil painting of former Governor Edward Schofield.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved February 28, 1919.

No. 80, S.]

[Published March 5, 1919.

CHAPTER 7.

AN ACT to amend the introductory paragraph of subsection (1) and subsection (5) of section 20.02 of the statutes, relating to the executive department, and making appropriations.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The introductory paragraph of subsection (1) of section 20.02 of the statutes is amended to read:

(20.02) (1) To the executive department, annually, beginning July 1, * * * 1919, * * * eighteen thousand one hundred ten dollars. Of this there is allotted:

SECTION 2. Subsection (5) of section 20.02 of the statutes is amended read: