CHAPTER 211.

AN ACT to amend section 4682 and to create section 4682a of the statutes, relating to change of venue and providing for a speedy trial in certain cases.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4682 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 4682. When the court has ordered a change of venue it shall require the accused, if the offense be bailable, to enter into a recognizance, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court or judge, in such sum as the court or judge shall direct, conditioned for his appearance in the court to which the venue is changed either during the pending term or at the first day of the next term thereof and to abide the order of such court; and in default of such recognizance a warrant shall be issued, directed to the sheriff, commanding him to convey the prisoner to the jail of the county where he is to be tried either forthwith or by the first day of the next term of the circuit court to be holden in such county, there to be safely kept by the jailer thereof until discharged by due course of law. But the judge of the court, in case no final trial is had during the pending term or the term next after such change of venue, may order the prisoner to be kept in the common jail of any county where it may be most safe and convenient, and may make all necessary orders for the prisoner's safe custody, bail and appearance for trial.

SECTION 2. A new section is added to the statutes to read: Section 4682a. When any defendant, in an indictment found, or information filed shall appear for trial during the pending term of the court where trial of the said defendant is to be had or when any defendant in an indictment found or information filed obtains a change of venue to another court and is ordered to appear during the pending term of the court held in the county to which
