The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new subsection is added to section 1728a of the statutes to read: (Section 1728a) 5. Except for employment in domestic service as provided in subsection 1 of this section, which employment involves the attendance of the child at vocational school, the permit provided for in said subsection shall not be required during school vacations for employment of children of the ages therein specified in any work usual to the home of the employer, provided that such employment shall not be in connection with nor form a part of the business, trade, profession, or occupation of the employer, and provided further that such employment shall not be specifically prohibited by any provision of this section nor by any order of the industrial commission issued under its authority. Children between fourteen and seventeen years of age may be likewise employed in any work usual to the home of the employer without permits during school terms but not during the daily period of the school session if such children are in actual, regular and full time attendance as provided by law at any public, private or parochial school and maintain in such school a passing grade in all studies pursued by them. This subsection shall not authorize the employment of a child who is at the time guilty of truancy or deficiency in his studies.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
