CHAPTER 229.

AN ACT to amend subsection (2) of section 42.55 of the statutes, relating to teachers' annuity and retirement fund in cities of the first class.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (2) of section 42.55 of the statutes is amended to read: (42.55) (2) The president of the managing body of the schools, two female teachers, not more than one of whom shall be a principal or vice principal, two male teachers, not more than one of whom shall be a principal or vice principal, and four members of the managing body of the schools in cities of the first class, are hereby constituted a board of trustees to be known as the "Public School Teachers' Annuity and Retirement Fund Trustees." The trustees shall serve without pay, but the member who shall have been elected secretary of such board of trustees may receive such compensation for clerical duties performed in connection with the annuity and retirement fund, as said board shall determine. Said board is empowered to employ council, and all persons needed to perform actuarial, accounting, and clerical work necessary to the proper performance of the duties of such board, and also any physician or physicians, surgeon or surgeons, whose services may be necessary to advise said board concerning the condition of any person who applies for pension or annuity to said board of trustees. Whenever any trustee shall cease to be a member of the managing body, or a teacher in the public schools, he shall cease to be such trustee.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 230.

AN ACT to create section 311.075 of the statutes, granting powers to special administrators to settle and wind up small estates in certain cases.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 311.075 Whenever it shall be established by verified petition and due proof that the intestate estate, exclusive of an exempt homestead, does not exceed the selections and allowances of the widow and minor children, now provided for, and the amounts required for funeral expenses and last illness, the special administrator may under the directions of the court pay such allowances and preferred claims and distribute such estate accordingly. And such special administrator may thereupon be required to file his final account, the heirship determined, the exempt homestead, if any, be assigned forthwith to those entitled thereto, and further proceedings in the estate ordered discontinued.
