CHAPTER 192.

AN ACT to amend section 319.01 of the statutes, relating to the appointment of guardians of minors.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 319.01 of the statutes is amended to read:
319.01 All persons under the age of twenty-one years shall be deemed minors, and the county court in each county may appoint guardians for minors and others subject to guardianship, being residents in the same county, and also to such as shall reside without the state and have any estate within the county. If a minor be under the age of fourteen years the court may nominate and appoint his guardian; if he be above the age of fourteen years he may nominate his own guardian, who, if approved by the court, shall be appointed accordingly. Such nomination shall be made in the county court by the minor, or if because of illness he cannot appear in person or if he does not reside within ten miles of the place of holding the county court, he may sign the application in the presence of a justice of the peace or a municipal judge of the county in which he resides. The justice or municipal judge shall certify to the county court that the application is the application of said minor, signed in his presence, and the court shall be satisfied that the person appointed is the deliberate choice of such minor.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
