

SECTION 1. Subsection (16) of section 20.43 of the statutes is amended to read: (20.43) (16) Any moneys heretofore received or hereafter received by the state from the United States under the provisions of an act of congress, entitled "An Act for the Promotion of the Welfare and Hygiene of Maternity and Infancy and other Purposes," approved November 23, 1921, and any act amendatory thereof, or any act of congress hereafter enacted making available funds for similar purposes, shall be paid within one week after receipt into the general fund and are appropriated therefrom to the state board of health and vital statistics, for the promotion of the welfare and hygiene of maternity and infancy and other purposes.

SECTION 2. Whenever the United States government or any department thereof shall make available to this state funds for the promotion of maternity and infancy welfare under conditions which this state can fulfil, the state of Wisconsin assents thereto and hereby accepts the benefits thereof. The governor is authorized to enter into agreement with the government of the United States for the acceptance of such fund and for the administration thereof by the state board of health or any other state department for the purposes for which said fund was designated by act of congress or by the authority of the department of the United States government through which said fund shall be made available to this state.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 142.

AN ACT to amend sections 41.18 and 41.19 of the statutes, relating to vocational schools.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 41.18 and 41.19 of the statutes are amended to read: 41.18 The vocational schools shall be open to all residents of the cities, towns and villages in which such schools are located, who are fourteen years of age and who are not by law required to attend other schools, and to all persons over fourteen years of age employed in said cities, towns or villages, but who are residents of other municipalities maintaining vocational schools; provided, such nonresidents shall present the written approval of the local board of vocational education of their home municipality. The vocational schools shall be open to all persons fourteen years of age or over who reside in other municipalities having local boards of vocational education but in which the specific courses desired by such persons are not given; provided, such courses are given in the municipality in which such persons elect to attend and the local board of such municipality agrees to admit them; provided further, that such nonresidents shall present the written approval of the local board of vocational education of their home municipality. Any person over the age of fourteen years who shall reside in any town, village or city not having a vocational school, and who is otherwise qualified to pursue the course of study, may with the approval of the board of vocational education, be allowed to attend any school under its supervision. Nonresident pupils shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as resident pupils.

41.19 The local board of vocational education is authorized to charge tuition for nonresident pupils not to exceed fifty cents * * * for each day or evening of actual attendance. Before July in each year the secretary of the board shall send a sworn statement to the secretary of the local board of vocational education in the municipality in which such pupils reside in cities, towns or villages having local boards of vocational education. In case such nonresident pupils reside in a municipality in which no vocational school is maintained then such sworn statement shall be sent to the clerk of the municipality in which such pupils reside. In either case said sworn statement shall set * * * forth the residence, name, age and date of entrance to such school, and the number of * * * days' or evenings' attendance during the preceding year of each such pupil, and the amount of tuition due on account of such attendance. This statement shall be filed as a claim against said local board of vocational education or against such municipality, as the case may be, and allowed as other claims are allowed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
