

* * * If any person charged upon indictment or information with a criminal offense shall have procured a change of venue to the circuit court of Polk county, said county court shall commit or hold the party to bail to appear at the next term of the circuit court and the clerk of said county court shall transmit all papers and a copy of the records and proceedings in said case, properly certified to be such under the seal of said court, to the said circuit court which shall then have full jurisdiction of the action; all recognizances previously given in such cases and returned to said county court may be enforced in said circuit court as fully as if they had been originally returned thereto. In like manner may all such cases which might originally have been brought in said county court or appealed thereto, where a change of venue is allowed or directed by the circuit court on the grounds of prejudice of the judge thereof, be removed to said county court; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as abrogating the power conferred upon the circuit court by section 261.08 of the * * * statutes of 1925.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
