CHAPTER 210

AN ACT to amend various provisions of the statutes relating to estates of dower, so as to harmonize them with section 233.01 of the statutes, which declares dower to be an estate in fee.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 276.02 of the statutes is amended to read: 276.02 COMPLAINT; PARTIES. (1) The complaint in such action shall particularly describe the lands sought to be partitioned, and shall set forth the rights and titles of all persons interested therein, so far as the same are known to the plaintiff, including the interest of any tenant for years, for life, or by the curtesy * * * and of the persons entitled to the reversion, remainder or inheritance, after the termination of any particular estate therein; and of every person who by any contingency, contained in any devise, grant or otherwise, or as having an inchoate right of dower may be or become entitled to any beneficial interest in the premises; but in case any such person or his share or interest be unknown to the plaintiff, or be uncertain or contingent, or the ownership of the inheritance shall depend upon an executory devise, or the remainder shall be a contingent remainder, so that such person or his interest cannot be named or set forth, the same shall be stated in the complaint; but no person whose title or interest appears of record, or who is in the actual possession or occupancy of any of such lands, shall be considered or proceeded against as an unknown owner.

(2) The complaint shall demand judgment for a partition of the premises according to the respective rights of the parties interested therein and for a sale thereof, if it shall appear that partition of the land cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners thereof; and when the complaint does not pray
