

No. 187, S.]

[Published June 12, 1931.]

CHAPTER 225.

AN ACT to amend section 61.30 of the statutes, relating to the compensation of justice of the peace in villages in counties having a population of five hundred thousand or more.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 61.30 of the statutes is amended to read: 61.30 The justice of the peace shall within ten days after his election, take and file the official oath and execute and file an official bond. He shall hold his office for two years from the time of his election and until his successor is elected and qualified. He shall have concurrent jurisdiction and powers throughout the county with other justices of the peace. He shall hold the police court and shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all cases arising under the ordinances and by-laws of such village. The village board of any village located in a county having a population of at least five hundred thousand or more, may fix the compensation of the justice of the peace, in which event his fees in all cases arising under the ordinances and by-laws of such village, shall be collected and paid into the village treasury in the manner provided by section 61.63.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 11, 1931.

No. 313, S.]

[Published June 12, 1931.]

CHAPTER 226.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money to John Garske to compensate him for injuries sustained in the state prison.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is appropriated to John Garske of Rosholt, Wisconsin, a sum sufficient to compensate him for accidental injuries to his hand and arm sustained December 7, 1926, while an inmate of the state prison, the amount of such compensation to be determined as provided by section 56.21 and paid as provided in subsection (2) of section 56.21. Acceptance of this appropriation