CHAPTER 234.

AN ACT to amend subsection (2) of section 202.11 of the statutes, relating to notice of assessment of town mutual insurance.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (2) of section 202.11 of the statutes is amended to read: (202.11) (2) When any assessment shall have been completed the secretary shall immediately insert a notice in one or more newspapers printed in the county or counties where the corporation is doing business, stating the amount of the assessment, the time such assessment was levied, and the time when the same becomes due. Such notice together with the proof of the publication thereof shall be conclusive evidence of notice of such assessment to every member. The secretary shall also notify every member by mail of the * * * rate per cent of such assessment, and the sum due from him, and the time when due, and to whom payment is to be made, which time shall not be less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the date of such notice. If the insurance is payable to a mortgagee and the assessment thereon is not paid within the time specified, the secretary shall within thirty days after the expiration of such time give like notice to the mortgagee. The mortgagee shall have twenty days from the date of such notice to pay the assessment.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 11, 1931.

CHAPTER 235.

AN ACT to amend the introductory paragraph of subsection (1) of section 103.02 and section 103.04 of the statutes, relating to violations of the law regulating the hours of labor of women in hotels and providing a penalty.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The introductory paragraph of subsection (1) of section 103.02 and section 103.04 of the statutes are amended to read: (103.02) (1) (Introductory paragraph) No female shall be employed or be permitted to work in any place of employment or at any employment for such period or periods of time during any day, night or week, as shall be dangerous or prejudicial to the life, health, safety or welfare of such female. It shall be the duty of the industrial commission and it shall have power, jurisdiction and authority to investigate, ascertain, determine and fix such reasonable classification, and to issue general or special orders fixing a period or periods of time, or hours of beginning and ending work during any day, night or week, which shall be necessary to protect the life, health, safety or welfare of any female, or to carry out the purposes of sections 103.01 to 103.04, inclusive, of the statutes. Such investigations, classifications and orders, and any action, proceeding, or suit to set aside, vacate or amend any such order of said commission, or to enjoin the enforcement thereof, shall be made pursuant to the proceeding in sections 101.01 to 101.28, inclusive, of the statutes, which are hereby made a part hereof, so far as not inconsistent with the provisions of sections 103.01, 103.02 subsection (1), 103.03 and 103.04 of the statutes, and every order of the said commission shall have the same force and effect as the orders issued pursuant to said sections 101.01 to 101.28, inclusive, of the statutes, and the penalties therein shall apply to and be imposed for any violation of sections 103.01, 103.02 * * * , 103.03 and 103.04 of the statutes. Until such time as the industrial commission shall so investigate, ascertain, determine and fix, and shall issue general or special orders thereon, the periods of time specified in the attached schedule shall be deemed to be dangerous or prejudicial to the life, health, safety or welfare of females.

103.04 The employment of any female in any such employment or place of employment, as defined in section 103.01 and subsections (2) and (3) of section 103.02, at any time other than those of the posted hours of labor, as hereinbefore provided for, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this act. Every day for each female employed, and every week for each female employed, during which any employer shall fail to observe or to comply with any order of the commission, or to perform any duty enjoined by sections 103.01 to 103.04, inclusive, of the statutes, shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 11, 1931.

CHAPTER 237.

AN ACT to amend section 185.18 of the statutes, relating to annual report of co-operative associations.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 185.18 of the statutes is amended to read: 185.18 Every association shall annually, on or before the first day of April make a report to the secretary of state; such report shall contain the name of the association, its principal office, and * * * a statement as to its business, * * * amount of capital stock subscribed for and paid in, the authorized rate of dividends on the paid-up capital stock, number of stockholders * * * and latest operating and financial statements. Any association failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be subject to and governed by the provisions of section 180.08 of the statutes insofar as said section relates to the failure of corporations to file reports and the penalty therefor.
